

A note from Mr Young:

Welcome to our first weekly newsletter- This year we aim to keep you up to date with all the ongoings, celebrations and key upcoming dates for you weekly.

After now being in school for two weeks, it has been amazing to see how everyone has settled so quickly into the new year groups- from Year 3 finding their way around, and feeling like they have been here all year, to Year 6 already acting like role models for the rest of the school. My highlight for the week was our Roald Dahl day and seeing all the amazing costumes and creativity- all pupils enjoyed the special themed lessons, and was a lovely day. I hope you enjoy our weekly newsletter, and I welcome any further thoughts for future editions. Best wishes Mr Young

Thoughts from our 'Minion of the week'

Each week, we celebrate a pupil who has demonstrated our schools values and deserves to be recognised. we will ask the winner to share a few thoughts as to how their week has been...

Ella F (5HB)-

My week so far has been very good. Since returning from the holidays I have enjoyed looking after and helping the Year 3 children. In the mornings I walk two of them from the bus to their classroom and help them to settle and unpack their bags. I like to be a role model to the Year 3 children, it makes me happy to help them. My favourite subject this week has been art, we are doing a project on slavery, and expressing emotions through texture and colour. It was a bit embarrassing getting the Minion award, as at the time, I was dressed as a spider!!!!
